LAS CRUCES, N. M. (U.P.)—W. N. Wells, lumber dealer, has a second-hand wooden leg he would like to sell for $100.

The late Rev. P. N. Roux, of Tortugas, N. M., was indebted to Wells for that amount and willed his artificial leg in a deathbed bequest.

City Burns $159,814 Scrip TOLEDO (U.P.)—County Commissioners sauntered casually over to the county jail and tossed $159,814 into the furnace—all in retired scrip, part of a $210,000 issue released in 1933.

Local Tennis Club Swamps Hermosa, 21-7

After being on the losing side of the final score column in their last several matches with teams from surrounding cities, members of the Torrance Tennis club entered the winning column last Sunday with a sweep of victories over Hermosa Beach players. The final score was 21 to 7. The local club will play a series of matches with Manhattan Beach next Sunday, Nov. 7.

Even the two World War veterans in the Torrance club came thru in fine style. Les Prince won his singles and, with Al Jaungem, defeated Hermosa doubles players. And Baker Smith, the other vet, took his singles match and, with Hugh Steadman, emerged victorious in a doubles play.

Other singles winners were: Steadman, Bob Stone, Melvin Benner, Parke Montague, Johnny Powers, Gordon Groves, (of Lomita who is the first ranking player in the local club), Tony Prodan, John Hooper, Jack Clayton and Miss Louise Shanahan, the only woman winner of the day for the Torrance contingent.

Other doubles winners were: Prodan and Clayton, Ray Gale and Pete Lang, Stone and Montague, Bob Clayton and Bob Sleeth, Maxine Smith and Sleeth, and Louise Shanahan and Jun-Groves and Wheeler Newman, sem.

Proud Mother Meets Joe Di Maggio

There was a crowd of several thousand persons on hand to welcome Joe Di Maggio home to San Francisco after his starring performance with the New York Yankees in the World Series—but the happiest one there was Joe's mother, who is shown above as she tries to give Joe a kiss for each home run he made this year. At lower right is Joe's niece, Betty Kren, one of the 30 some members of the Di Maggio family who turned out for the reception.

Torrance Bees Tie Narbonne 7 to 7 In Pee-Wee Marine League Opener Here

Altho Coach Bert Merrill lost three of his best pee-wee gridgers because of ineligibility, the Torrance Bees managed to hold the Narbonne Bees to a 7 to 7 tie the day before the Torrance Tartars and Narbonne Gauchos fought out a 0 to 0 tie last week. The Bee game was played here last Thursday afternoon. At the same time the San Pedro Bees defeated the Gardena midgits about three touchdowns.

This afternoon the Torrance Bees are playing the San Pedro pint-sized gridgers at the port city school's field. Merrill is not expecting to hold the Pirates pee-wees to a tie because of their showing over Gardena's sprouting players.

Gents of South to Play Loyola Lions On Armistice Day

Eager to uphold the honor and glory of the Old South, Centenary College's stellar football team will clash with Loyola University at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, Thursday, Nov. 11. The Armistice Day game is being sponsored by the Los Angeles Council of the American Legion.

Heading a team that humbled Southern Methodist University this year, Coach Curtis Parker of the Centenary Gentlemen has a well balanced club. Two of his backfield men have met with high acclaim this year. They are "Weenie" Bynum and Ed Whitehurst. Bynum is rated one of the best passers and most elusive backfield men to be developed in the South. Whitehurst has been called a "One Man Football Team" because of the way he ploughs through opposing football clubs and backs up a line.

PISTOL CLUB TO MEET A regular monthly meeting of the Torrance Pistol club will be held at the police station next Tuesday night, Nov. 2.
